

Application form

18. Theoretical positions, research contents and goals

Obligatory content:

1. Scientific background
2. Problem identification
3. Objective of the proposed research with particular emphasis on the originality of the proposed research and its potential impact for the development of new research directions
4. The originality of the expected results
5. Relevance and potential impact of the results
6. Exceptional socio-economic or culturally relevant achievements of the programme leader
7. Organisational structure and feasibility of the research programme
8. Direct relevance of the research programme for the economy and social activities and indirect importance for society

19. Working methods

Obligatory content: Provide the planned working methods.